

Welcome to the Fortune of War & Russell Boutique Hotel – A Living Piece of Sydney’s History

Since 1828, Fortune of War has stood the test of time, making it Sydney’s Oldest Pub. Over the years, it has welcomed sailors, soldiers, travellers and locals, each leaving their mark and adding to its rich history. From the early colonial days to the vibrant heart of modern Sydney, these walls have seen it all - the laughter, the toasts, the camaraderie and the moments that turn a pub into a true institution.

The hamper bar with its timber smoothed by generations of hands, remains as it was - a meeting place, a refuge, a home away from home. The hallways echo the past, lined with photographs and memories that tell a story nearly two centuries in the making.

Upstairs, The Russell Boutique Hotel carries its own legacy, standing as a silent witness to the changing face of The Rocks and offering shelter to those passing through. Together, these two landmarks are part of Sydney’s fabric, a story of heritage, resilience, tradition and good times.

Step inside, take it all in and raise a glass.
You’re part of history now.
